SIT focuses on bank a/cs, mobile CDR

Ahmedabad: The Special Investigation Team (SIT) formed to probe into the death of seven members of a family from Palanpur Jakatnaka Road is focusing on the bank details and call detail record (CDR) of Manish Solanki who killed himself after allegedly killing six members of his family on Saturday. Police commissioner Ajay Kumar Tomar had on Saturday formed an SIT headed by DCP (Zone-5) R P Barot to probe into the seven deaths. Other members of the SIT are ACP Bhavesh Rajliya, ACP BM Chaudhary and Adajan Inspector R B Gojliya. Solanki, a furniture businessman, maintained three bank accounts. His mobile phone was found from his house after thorough search by the SIT. As the phone was locked, it was sent to FSL. The phone might be having crucial information like videos and call recordings.

On Sunday, the SIT called 15 people who worked with Solanki. "We called them for questioning," said SIT chief Barot. On Monday, the SIT will family suicide.

Exercising just for 20-25 minutes can prevent death risk due to prolonged sitting.

A sedentary lifestyle increases the risk of death, but just 20 to 25 minutes of physical activity per day can counteract it, according to a study published in the British Journal of Sports Medicine. Regardless of the amount of time spent sitting, higher levels of physical activity are associated with a lower risk. The study, based on data from the US, Sweden, and Norway, found that participants who sat for more than 12 hours a day had a higher risk of death, but this risk decreased with even short bursts of exercise. A retired Assistant Commissioner of Police (ACP), Pradeep Temkar, died by suicide by jumping from his seventh-floor flat in Mumbai. The 70-year-old had been undergoing psychiatric treatment for mental health issues. He had retired in 2014 after serving as an ACP in the traffic police department.

question Solanki's relatives and friends to know who were the names of the respective banks," he said. On Saturday, the SIT has sought the CDR of his mobile to know who all he was in touch with. "As the matter pertains to money, we will try to know the details of his bank accounts by visiting the respective banks," said the SIT chief. Meanwhile, the postmortem note of Solanki showed that he died by hanging. "The postmortem notes of other six are expected on Monday. We will file an FIR based on those six notes," he said. On Saturday, postmortems had revealed that Solanki had strangled his mother and one of his daughters after poisoning them. A 50-year-old wife in Surat, India, killed his man, three children, and parents before hanging himself in their home. The man, Manish Solanki, had been struggling to retrieve money he had lent to someone. A suicide note was found, but it did not specify the amount lent to the names of the borrowers. The police have formed a special investigation team to determine the motive for the

Ranbir Kapoor: The New Face of "Hauser" pens

Ahmedabad, Ranbir Kapoor, known for his cinematic versatility and charismatic presence, brings a unique proposition to the academic setting. The recent Flair Writing Industries Limited's ("FWIL") newest TVC for Hauser pens reflects a commitment to fostering a culture of inspiration and empowerment, where renowned actor Ranbir Kapoor takes on a transformative role as the inspirational professor, creating a powerful narrative that resonates with the spirit of academic and personal excellence.

The campaign "An Extra Ordinary pen for Extra Ordinary you" shows Ranbir Kapoor playing a professor who is instilling confidence in his students to perform better. The union between Kapoor and Hauser is more than a celebrity endorsement; it's a shared commitment to instill confidence, redefine success, and empower the younger generation to embrace their uniqueness. Hauser from the house of FWIL has a wide product range from Ball Pens, Gel Pens, Fountain Pens, Metal Pens, Stationery and more. Mr. Mohit Rathod - Director, Flair Writing Industries Limited, shared, "In a departure from his on-screen personas, we see Ranbir Kapoor stepping into the shoes of a mentor, guiding students on a journey towards the extraordinary in Hauser pen's latest TVC. We are extremely elated to put forth the narrative of encouragement, of motivating students to surpass conventional limits and embrace their potential for greatness with Ranbir Kapoor, who is a global icon" (22-2)

Fake govt office case: Police bring accused to city, seize documents

Ahmedabad: Several key documents were seized from the office of Abu Bakr Saiyed, a prime accused in the fake government office racket, on Sunday. The police brought Saiyed and co-accused Sandip Rajput to the city for further investigations. The police said that Saiyed has the office in the city from where he ran his clandestine business. The Chhota Udepur cop also raided his office in Bodeli from where he operated the fake government office. Cops were surprised to find details of several government schemes hanging on the walls in the dingy room of a shopping complex.

The police seized all the materials and continued questioning the accused duo. Investigations are on to ascertain if any more persons are involved in the racket that two years that sent proposals for works which were cleared until Wednesday when the official smelled a rat. In 2021-22, bills amounting to more than Rs 1.97 crore, and in 2022-23 amounting to over Rs 2.18 crore were raised by this 'fake' office. Payments for all these bills totalling to Rs 4,15,54,915 were also made by the office.

The officer then asked the officials to dig up details of the proposals previously made by the office and it was then that the racket surfaced. Bakr had hired Rajput for a monthly pay wherein the latter used to pose as government official while making the proposals.

A Delhi Police team has arrested Enamul Haq Ansari, also known as Imam, in connection with a fake visa racket. Imam, who is the nephew of Indian Mujahideen member Danish Ansari, used to cheat people by promising them visas for Gulf countries. The police also seized a laptop and other objectionable items from a cybercafe owned by Imam. The accused has been taken to Delhi for further investigation.

The Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI) has taken over the investigation of an extortion case against Kolkata police officers. The accused officers allegedly extorted Rs 20 lakh from a Mumbai-based businessman.

High onion prices sting consumers

Ahmedabad: Earlier this year tomatoes had disappeared from salads and grubs and now onions are bringing tears to consumers' eyes.

Onions cost about Rs 35 a kilogram at the beginning of October but are now retailing for Rs 100 in the city. Prices have risen suddenly in the last week, going from about Rs 50 to Rs 100 a kg in retail. Agricultural Produce Market Committee (APMC) officials said wholesale prices, which were around Rs 12-32 a kg depending on quality in mid-October have risen to Rs 30-58 in the last two weeks.

And while prices have risen sharply, the quality of onions being sold in the city has fallen. The APMC market yard, which recorded supply of 8,000 quintals in October last year, saw supply decline to 4,000 to 4,500 quintals this October. Onion traders said prices are increasing due to reduced supply with demand remaining stable. The quality of onions has fallen because of adverse weather conditions in onion growing areas.

APMC secretary Sanjay Patel said the crop had largely failed in Maharashtra. "According to APMC office-bearers, prices are expected to rise for 20-odd days. We expect prices to cross Rs 75 in wholesale. Retail prices may hit Rs 120-140 a kg. Once the Gujarat crop starts to arrive by the end of November, prices will come down again," an onion wholesaler said.
